

Written By Becky Baines

Dolphins live in a family

Adapted from the original text, Dolphins, written by Becky Baines

Living in a group helps dolphins find food and be safe

Adapted from the original text, Dolphins, written by Becky Baines

In deep ocean waters, groups of dolphins form a school with a lot more dolphins.

Adapted from the original text, Dolphins, written by Becky Baines

 ++  fish,  squid,  ++ &  shrimp.

Adapted from the original text, Dolphins, written by Becky Baines

Dolphins hunt for food together. ....

Adapted from the original text, Dolphins, written by Becky Baines

Adapted from the original text, Dolphins, written by Becky Baines

Dolphins		flippers	help	them	swim	better.	Their	tail

helps	them	go fast	and	their	dorsal	fin	helps them	swim	straight.

Adapted from the original text, Dolphins, written by Becky Baines

little dolphins can swim when they are born.

little dolphins can talk right after being born.

At 6 years old, a dolphin becomes an adult.

Adapted from the original text, Dolphins, written by Becky Baines

Dolphins

like to play.

They

ride

waves

and blow bubbles.

Adapted from the original text, Dolphins, written by Becky Baines

Dolphins play games in the moonlight. When its bed time, they sleep.

Adapted from the original text, Dolphins, written by Becky Baines

The End