IF

You

take a

Mouse

to the movies.

for some

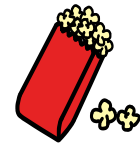

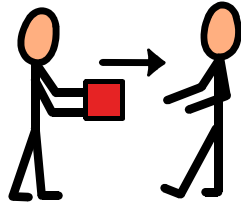

He'll

ask

you

popcorn.

When

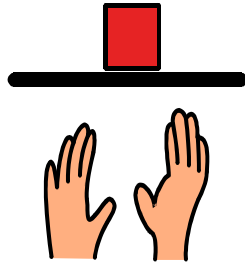

you

give

him the popcorn,

Then

he'll

want

to hang it on the Christmas tree.

You'll have to buy him one.

On the way home, he'll see a snowman in your neighbor's yard.

Then

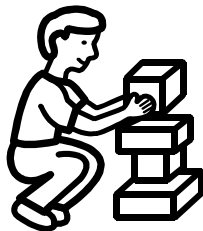

he'll need a carrot for a nose.

When he's

all

finished

he'll decide to build

a

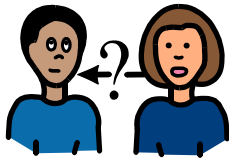

fort.

He'll

ask

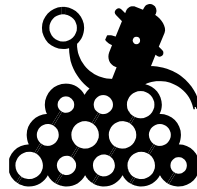

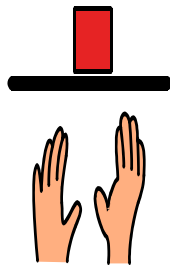

you

to help him.

Then

and have a

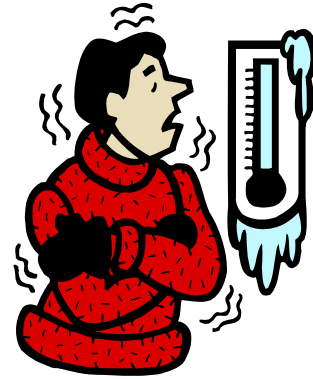

he'll want to make snowballs

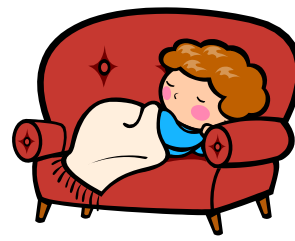

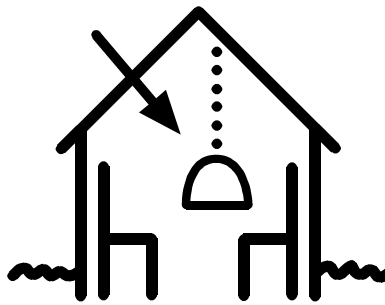

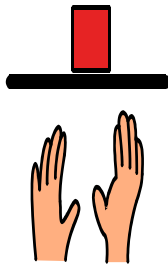

Snowball fight.

Playing outside will make him cold.

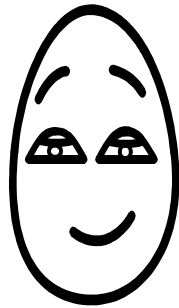

He'll want to go inside and curl up on the couch.

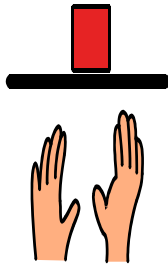

He'll ask you for a blanket.

Adapted from the original text, If You Take A Mouse to the Movies
by Laura Numeroff, Harper Collins Children's Books

Once he's nice and cozy,

He'll want to listen to Christmas carols.

You'll have to find some on the radio.

Adapted from the original text, If You Take A Mouse to the Movies
by Laura Numeroff, Harper Collins Children's Books

He'll probably sing along.

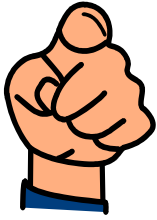

The carols will remind him of the Christmas tree,

So he'll want to make ornaments.

Adapted from the original text, If You Take A Mouse to the Movies
by Laura Numeroff, Harper Collins Children's Books

You'll get

him

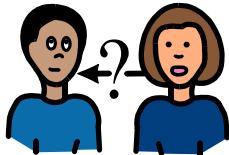

some paper

and glue.

He'll

ask

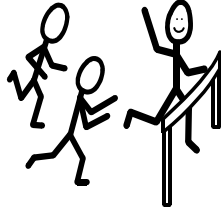

you for some glitter.

Adapted from the original text, If You Take A Mouse to the Movies
by Laura Numeroff, Harper Collins Children's Books

When the ornaments are done,

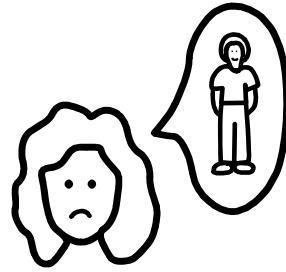

He'll hang them all up.

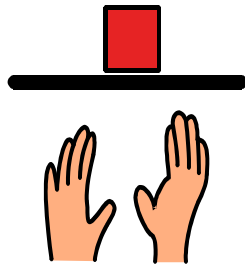

Then he'll stand back to look at the tree.

Adapted from the original text, If You Take A Mouse to the Movies
by Laura Numeroff, Harper Collins Children's Books

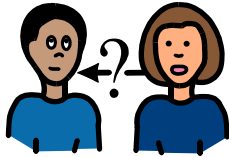

He'll notice his popcorn string is missing.

So, he'll want to make another one.

by Laura Numeroff, Harper Collins Children's Books

He'll

ask

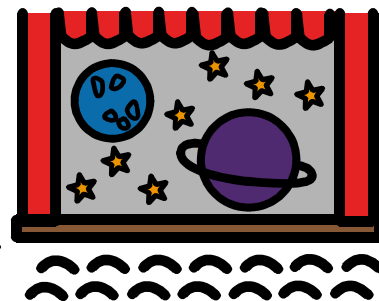

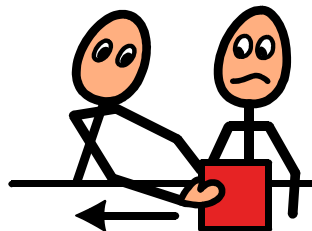

you for some popcorn.

And chances are,

When

you give him the popcorn,

he'll

want you

to take him to the movies.
